Dear Mike, Joe, Ryan, Jackie, and friends at Tri-State Wrestling Alliance,

Thank you for your wonderful support of the autism community and Autism Speaks through the TWA wrestling event on January 30th. We were so proud to partner with your organization once again and we're extremely grateful for all of the awareness and the $980 in funds you helped to generate on behalf of our mission.

We were truly impressed by the growth of your event this year, and were so happy to have the opportunity to involve our volunteers in the experience, especially those whose lives are so profoundly impacted by autism. They truly appreciated the support you all provided to our community, and expressed their hope that they could be involved with your group again next year. Ryan, we loved that you shared your personal story in the ring – we hope that we can call upon you as a speaker for us in the future.

As you know, autism now affects one in every 110 children and one in 70 boys. At Autism Speaks, we are dedicated to funding global biomedical research into the causes, prevention, treatments, and cure for autism; to raising public awareness about autism and its effects on individuals, families, and society; and to bringing hope to all who deal with the hardships of this disorder. We are committed to raising the funds necessary to support these goals. Thanks to organizations like TWA, we're on our way.

Thank you, once again, for your support. We hope we'll have an opportunity to work with all of you again in the near future.

Sincerely,

Christina Carty, Ann Miller, Kelly Gavin & our Volunteer Committee
